SmartTalks

SmartTalks are meetings with practitioners (e.g. Computer engineers, computer scientists, web developers, and data scientists), about new trends and technologies related to information technologies.

SmartClasses

SmartClasses are master or PhD classes open to the community, specially focused in research related to information technologies (e.g. IOT, Cloud Computing, Robotics).

SmartEvents

SmartEvents are events where several invited speakers participate in an event more formal than the SmartTalk. Some of the SmartEvents corresponds to commemorative days.
